

Alan Handley is CEO of Varialift Airships PLC

Having managed a Company with up to 3000 employees in the mining equipment market

Also with over 45 years of personal experience in designing bespoke process lines and equipment for the steel industry he has worked on heavy lift equipment encompassing the handling of all types of heavy loads.

Having hands on experience in design, fabrication and welding in steel and aluminium along with pneumatics, hydraulics, electric control systems and the use of programmable controllers.

For the past 9 years he has worked on variable buoyancy and heavy lift in airships bringing in new ideas and now owns the IP and Patents in the USA also Europe and Hong Kong with regard to the Varialift Airships.